GUERLAIN is a French Perfume, Cosmetics and Skincare House, which is among the Oldest in the World. Many Traditional Guerlain Fragrances are characterized by a Common Olfactory Accord known as the "Guerlinade". The House was founded in Paris in 1828 by the Perfumer Pierre-François Pascal Guerlain. It was run by the Guerlain Family until 1994, when it was bought by the French Multinational Company LVMH. Its Flagship Store is 68, Avenue des Champs-Élysées in Paris. Guerlain's Creations have long influenced the Trends of Perfumery with Fragrances such as Jicky, Shalimar, and Vétiver. Guerlain is among the Few Older Houses that exist solely to Produce and Market Perfumes.

Many Brands in the Perfume Industry, such as Chanel and Jean Patou are in fact Divisions of Fashion Houses or Multinational Conglomerates that license the Brand Name. Alongside its Fragrances, today Guerlain has expanded to offer a Large Range of Makeup and Skincare. Guerlain Products are available across the World at Serviced Counters within Department Stores, and at Beauty Stores such as LVMH Brand Sephora. Guerlain also maintains Thirteen International Beauty and Spa 'Boutiques'.

In 2006, Daniel and Florence Guerlain created a Contemporary Drawing Prize within the Framework of their Foundation in the Aim of encouraging and promoting the Place of Drawing in Contemporary Art, while allowing French or Foreign Artists, for whom drawing plays a Significant Part in their Work, to pursue their Creative Work in this Direction with the Award of a Financial Endowment. They may or may not live in France but must entertain a Privileged Cultural Link with this Country via Museums or Art Schools.
